RMPBS 60 Second

Donna Johnson: Hau koda. Hello. As a child I remember my family watching PBS and now that I'm older...

Bessie Smith: And wiser, I still trust PBS to keep me entertained and informed...

Danielle Pourier: From important documentaries about the environment to films about history and the arts.

Walt Pourier: PBS is like a circle growing stronger and wider with each new program.

John Compton: I am convinced that PBS provides a powerful voice for Native Americans.

Bessie Smith: PBS is transformative, its programming gives Native Americans a powerful voice that makes a difference in our children's lives.

Danielle Pourier: PBS programs of my people's history help me to understand our native stories of old.

Walt Pourier: PBS is my source...

Darius Smith: My source...

Donna Johnson: My source...

Walt Pourier: PBS is my source for intelligent storytelling and positive portrayals of Native Americans.
