Rosa Pache

My name is Rose Pache and I'm the magnet Lead teacher at Brownsville middle school. I came to the US when I was in 5th grade. PBS was my first experience with English—the positive experience at least.

I am a mom of two wonderful boys. Since before birth I've been reading to my kids. And their books were the Sesame Street theme ad just t inspire, I'll break out in song and they'll go "Oh my God, she's doing it again, you can't sing!"

When my son started first grade, the teacher called me one day and said "Your son is not paying attention to us during the alphabet" and he says "We'll I already know" and he took the book and started reading and I went "Wow" and I can only attribute that to Sesame Street on the television.

My name is Rosa Pache and PBS is my source for realizing potential in myself and others.
