Gloria Bond Clunie

I'm a playwright, and when I was writing "Quark" which is a science play, I loved watching NOVA, it opened up the universe for me. It made it understandable. I could reach for the stars with it.

Find the connections, the quantum world and the cosmic world. Atoms become astronomy connections--they're there.

I'm Gloria Bond Clunie, Public Television is my source for expanding the vision of who I am.
